

A black and white illustration showing a man lying in a coffin, surrounded by a crowd of people in a funeral home setting. The man is lying in a coffin, and several people are gathered around him, some looking at him and others talking. The scene is set in a room with large windows and a high ceiling. The illustration is done in a detailed, etched style.

The ceremony of tapping the deceased pope on the forehead with a small silver mallet and calling him by name is performed by the cardinal camerlingo, or dean of the sacred college, who, upon failure to receive a response from the corpse, announces to the cardinals assembled in the room that the pope is dead. Pope Leo XIII. died of natural causes in 1891 and was buried in the Vatican. The ceremony of tapping the pope on the forehead with a small silver mallet and calling him by name is performed by the cardinal camerlingo, or dean of the sacred college, who, upon failure to receive a response from the corpse, announces to the cardinals assembled in the room that the pope is dead. Pope Leo XIII. died of natural causes in 1891 and was buried in the Vatican.

RESPONSES. The Journal gives additional particulars of the arrest in connection with the Pair suit of the two men whose names it gives as Louis M. and Frederick N. and who are testified before the New York authorities. The charge of perjury, according to the Journal, is made against them by Mr. Vanderbilt, and the magazine there, acting in accordance with New York, issued the warrants for their arrest. The Ontario Standard, in its issue of the 10th inst., is against being arrested, declaring that they were householders and married men and not likely to be disturbed in investigation. They were, nevertheless, detained in custody. The Standard declared that they were the only witnesses who were not actually arrested.

appeared identically the same, addresses of welcome, resolutions and a keynote address. The first of which was given by the local singers to furnish the for the convention was divided into three of the membership sang a hymn under the leadership of Evangelists John Hills, John and Charles D. Tillman. Albert Carman of Toronto, acted over the meeting. Tent Onward Mayor William C. Maybury and the delegates. Rev. W. H. D. followed with an address of welcome on behalf of the local Meth. N. W. Rowell of Toronto read to the welcoming addresses, which the keynote address was given by Rev. D. G. Downey of N. Y.

On the evening of the 20th, Rev. C. R. Cranston, presided over the opening church meeting at which Rev. James Potts of this city the welcoming address. It was followed by the singing of hymns, and the keynote address at meeting was made by Rev. J. E. of Jacksonville, Fla.

The following morning was crowded with Rev. H. W. Featherstone, the train, presented Governor Bliss, a prominent Methodist, who and the leaders to the city and Rev. George Elliott followed welcome on behalf of the Meth. of the city. Rev. H. M. Dubsos of St. Louis, general secretary Epworth League of the M. E. south, responded. The keynote was delivered by William of Toronto. The watchwords convention are "Waiting," "Waiting," "Working," and the in their keynote addresses to out in a general way the ideas centered by these watchwords.

Night Sessions:

The great Pentecostal meetings held simultaneously by the Epworth League, the Tent Onward of the monitor of the chateau in front of which the Fairs were killed, declared that she was the only person who saw the catastrophe.

COLORED EASTERN STAR.

Strong Protest Against the Lynching of Criminals.

Kansas City, July 16.—"Burning human beings at the stake, or hanging men of any race or color without due process of law, is a relic of a barbaric and uncivilized age, and we appeal to the men who make and execute the laws of our common country to protect every criminal who is arrested and give him a fair and impartial trial, whether he be white or black. Without law and order, there is government is a farce," declared the United Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star of Missouri, in resolutions adopted here today.

Over 200 representative colored men and women were present and a lively discussion followed. While the practice of lynching was vigorously denounced, most of the speakers maintained that the amelioration of the negro condition must be principally upon education. Mrs. M. B. Carnahan of St. Louis presided. Mrs. Julia Davis of Denver took part in the discussion.

MET A GOLD BROKER.

Secretary Shaw Makes a Visit to Wall Street.

New York, July 16.—Secretary Shaw at the sub-treasury today on his way from Oyster Bay to Washington. He declined to discuss existing financial conditions, but he said nothing concerning proposed financial legislation. The only transfer of importance was when the secretary conducted was Jacob H. Schiff, of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Neither would say what asked between them, but it is believed the meeting was made by appointment.

LOOKS LIKE MURDER.

Hammond, Ind., July 16.—The remains to suffocation, and the opera and the Central Methodist Episcopal church were crowded to their utmost capacity. Street was comfortably filled. The registration of delegates tonight totaled 17,000, with more arriving by train. At Tent Antonio mess, B. Galloway of Jackson, Miss., of the Methodist church, said: "The 'Eighteenth Century' was," and declared that Wesley's confidants were guided by the spirit in their founding of the He spoke of the 18-century in Wesley, and said:

"The spirit of those 18-century men brings us closer together than any of our great ecclesiastical leaders. There is a spirit abroad that runs on us north and south, and that is the spirit of brotherhood and interdependence for the common good. It is this spirit that Galloway referred to the late morning session of the conference, and that the confederate should be decorated on Memory as well as the federal, and his life should be greeted with great bursalause.

On D. A. Goodall was to have presented "The First Person" which prevented his attending. His was taken by Bishop I. W. Jones, of New York, president of the League, who received an ovation.

Wednesday, July 16.—The first day of Edward B. Nelson of Chicago. Nelson formerly was a lieutenant in the Danish army and came to the country four years ago. His profession was that of a sculptor. Nelson usually carried a large sum of money. The police believe he was murdered.

TWO TO ONE.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 16.—The first decisions of the conciliation board, which relate to some of the grievances in the anthracite coal strike, were announced today. Only three of the nineteen grievances submitted by President Carey were upheld. The strike was decided. Two favor the contention of the men and one is against them.

INCREASED PAY.

Bloomington, Ill., July 16.—Chicago & Alton officers today announced that they had agreed with the conductors, brakemen and switchmen. Freight men will receive an increase of 35 cents. The passenger men 12 per cent and switchmen an average increase of 16 per cent.

STRIKE SETTLED.

Milwaukee, July 16.—The tanners' strike at the Pfister & Vogel Leather company is settled. The strikers will receive an advance of 5 per cent.

HEART DISEASE.

New York, July 16.—Theodore F. Vail, president of the New York Central, CATERING TO LADIES AND CHILDREN.

Direct from the East
MARTING AND RIDGWAY
In Their Sensational Hit

"Continental"

And Ten Others.

Curtain rises at 8:30 p. m.
Matinee every Saturday at 3

25¢ ADMISSION

summe programme was followed by three other meetings and the subjects discussed by the speakers.

PAY CAR WAS SLOW.
Denver, July 16.—A spelter from La Junta, Colo., says an employee of the mine to whom and yards at that place struck the afternoon because their pay car was slow. The reason was yesterday, had not arrived.

PALACE of ILLUS
TEN CENTS.
Races Tuesdays and Frida
DANCING EVERY EVENING

dak supplies are at hand for our superior kodak finishing. Kodak catalog free. Address:
 The JOHNSON Co., C. E. Johnson
 Supt., Salt Lake, Utah.

New York Underwriters'..... 12,250
 Standard Accident Ins. Co..... 1,500
 Losses paid through this Agency exceeded $500,000.